T R A N S I T

TRANSIT is a very special series of artworks, whose creation started in 1906. An amazing copper tower on the old Malmö post office was slowly patinated over the course of the century that followed. And then it was my turn. The past six years I have continued the process of transforming the copper. It sounds like a fairy tale: I was entrusted with a century old copper tower by its art-loving owners, Volito. The tower was that of the beautiful old Malmö Central Post Office and the copper needed to be changed. In my hands (and heart) I had this magnificent copper from 1906 and, on my shoulders, the responsibility of taking care of this treasure and transforming it into art.

As I spent years working with it I found that the copper wasn't the only thing being transformed – in fact, my whole life changed. It feels like the copper and I have been on an incredible, tumultuous journey together.

I have created special letters, secretive books and parcels, magnificent columns and much more. The naturally aged copper has been joined by deeply etched, hand-written words and nature has snuck in, sprouting curious mushrooms and delicate flowers. With great care, the old copper has been given new life.

This catalogue shows the available works from the TRANSIT collection.
